

WARRINGTON NORTH LABOUR PARTY – PRIVACY POLICY

IP ADDRESSES AND LOG FILE DATA

This Labour Party site does not automatically capture or store personal information, other than logging the user's IP Address or the location of your computer or network on the Internet, for systems administration and troubleshooting purposes. (If you are connected to the Internet you have an IP address, for example an IP address might read "154.198.99.9"). We also use IP addresses in the aggregate to track which pages people visit in order to improve the quality of the site.

DATA COLLECTION AND USE

You may be asked for personal information if you complete one of the forms on this site. Please see below the information we ask for and what this information is used for.

In each case we will only use the information about you for the purpose for which you provide it. Personal information you submit on the Labour Party website is stored securely. Occasionally, in order to complete your request as outlined above, we may need to transfer personal information you submit to us to countries or jurisdictions outside the EEA. In each case, we will take steps to ensure that the suppliers we use comply with the General Data Protection Regulation or are subject to the Privacy Shield scheme agreed between the European Union and the United States. We will never sell or share your personal information with any other organisation outside of the Labour Party.

You may remove or change your details at any time. You have right of access to your personal information held on our files by written request to the Data Protection Officer (address below).

SITE REGISTRATION AND EMAIL SERVICE

When you register onto the site or subscribe to our emails, we ask you for contact information (such as your name and e-mail address), geographic information (such as your postcode), and other details about you. This is used to help us provide you with information to match your interests. We may also use it to alert you of campaigns you may be interested in and events happening in your area. This information may come from the Labour Party in Warrington North or its elected representatives. You may unsubscribe from these communications at any time by emailing: warringtonnorth.clp@gmail.com.

TO VOLUNTEER (PLEDGE YOUR SUPPORT)

We ask for your contact details, postcode and information on the type of volunteer work you are interested in. This information helps us identify suitable volunteer opportunities for you within the Party. Your details will be forwarded to the appropriate local party officer who can then contact you.

JOINING OR DONATING TO THE PARTY

Enquiries about membership or making donations are handled through links to other Labour party sites. These sites have their own privacy statements relating to the information requested for these purposes.

COOKIE

A cookie is a tiny text file that is stored on your computer. We may use cookies in order to tailor your experience on our site according to the preferences you have specified. However we will only access the information that we stored in your cookie file. We will not access any information stored in a cookie by other websites. Our cookies do not contain any personally identifiable information.

INFORMATION ON CHILDREN

The Labour Party does not process any personal details from individuals under the age of 14 without parent/guardian consent. Details of under 16s are processed for membership purposes only.
